THAT MANY ADDITIONS AT BAPTIST REVIVAL MEETING.

CONTINUES THIS WEEK

Great Interest Taken—Two Excellent Sermons Given Sunday Morning by Rev. George Hale.

The revival meeting at the First Baptist church reached the best point yet in the services of Sunday. A deep spirituality prevailed throughout the day, beginning with the Sunday school, when at its close over thirty children professed faith in their Saviour or asked for prayer. All the classes were filled with the regular students, while quite a number of new students were added. The four hundred mark in attendance was not reached, but there were between 350 and 400 present.

A large audience was present to hear the 11 o'clock sermon by Dr. George Hale from the text "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him and he with me." The preacher showed how the Saviour knocks for admittance at the door of the hearts of men in many ways. He is standing there waiting for admittance many times when His presence is not known, but the knowledge of His presence comes in some way, grief or distress being frequently the revealer of the Saviour's desire to come in and give His wonderful strength and peace. But He never comes unbidden. It is man's great privilege to invite this greatest of guests into his life, and this guest never refuses to come when bidden. With His coming there is comfort and joy and peace.

The singing for the morning services aided the message of the preacher, as it always does under the leadership of Rev. Charles E. Henry. Miss Marie Jones sang "He Knows" preceding the sermon, and the congregational singing was excellent.

At the close of the morning service the pastor, Rev. L. M. Hale, took a free will offering of $355 for the expenses of the revival services, detaining the congregation only about ten minutes for that very necessary part of the meeting.

The subject of "Repentance" was dealt with at the evening service. This is considered by those who have heard Dr. Hale throughout the meetings to be the best sermon he has delivered here. He did not leave a single thing unsaid to make the term of salvation plain. As a rule, men like to have their own philosophy of life, and it is only when a sharp grief or some distress comes upon them that they find their own philosophy too short to cover their need.

They like to make their own terms of salvation, too; they do not want repentance to work too deeply; they try to marvel at the new birth Christ preached, but they will never be saved without it.

"No man can be saved who is not willing to lay his heart bare to God. I have been preaching twenty years and I have never yet known a case where a man was not gloriously saved who turned away from every sin. It is the secret sin of men's lives that is keeping them from turning about and facing in the direction God leads. They are not willing to give up all to follow him. They want the benefits that follow Christian living, but they are not willing to seek forgiveness for their sins. When God is permitted to change a man's heart, he changes the soil, so that the fruit that springs up from it is rich and luscious. Every thought and desire is changed and he is a new man. But a man who merely reforms is fighting a losing battle; his old sins are ever before him and there is no peace and joy as is in the life of the man who repents of every sin and has them all cast into God's sea of forgetfulness. "I will remember them against him no more," says God, the loving, tender Father of us all, who wants no man to fight a hard battle; but he would help him and cause him to find the way victorious.

A duet, "Lead Me Gently Home, Father," was sung at this service by Miss Jones and Rev. Henry.

There were twelve additions, ten conversions and two received by letter, at the close of the service, with twenty-five requests for prayer.

There have been eighty-three additions to the church since the revival began, and there is apparently no decrease in the interest.

The baptismal service will occur this Monday evening at 7:30. Preaching will follow.

COURT IN SESSION.

The county court met Monday in regular session and will probably continue in session until Thursday. On Monday the court granted a pool hall license to M. A. Sparks for Conception Junction.

The court will select the petit jurors for the April term of circuit court, which meets on Monday, April 6. They will also settle with the various township collectors.

PUT ON THE WHITE TAGS.

Sheriff Wallace to Arrest Those Who Have Not Taken Out Their Auto Licenses.

To avoid the clutches of the law motorists are instructed to secure the white tags, insignia of 1914 license, and put them on the rear end of automobiles. Sheriff Ed Wallace has had a number of calls from Jefferson City urging the local officers to get busy to see that the applications are filed with the registration fee attached. The secretary of state has sent him a list of motor car owners and of those who have paid up. "I don't want to arrest any of them but if some do not take advantage of this dull time in motoring to get licenses I'm afraid I'll have to," the peace officer said this afternoon.

The new tags are white with a tall condensed number. The time to have them on is out and every day is a continuing breach of the statutory requirement of supplying the good roads fund of the state.

DIE FROM "BLIND STAGGERS."

Kansas and Nebraska Bore the Brunt of the Affliction During the Last Year.

Because of the widespread prevalence of blind staggers, a disease which is causing the death of thousands of horses, the department of agriculture at Washington today issued a statement outlining methods of combatting the malady. Urgent appeals for assistance have been received by the state department from no less than sixteen states showing the universality of the disease. The states include the following: Colorade, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Missouri, New Jersey, Nebraska, North Carolina, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Virginia and West Virginia.

In past years, according to the department, horses have died by the thousands in Texas, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska from a disease affecting the nervous system, popularly known as "blind staggers," or "forage poison."

"Kansas and Nebraska bore the brunt of the loss by reason of the affliction during the last year, but other states also have suffered seriously," says the department.

Additional deaths, it is stated, have undoubtedly been due to 'fake cures.' The disease, the department says, can be controlled effectively only by a change of green food and forage.

"It is quite obvious,' 'it declares, "that there is a direct connection between the green forage, exposed pasturage and newly cut hay or fodder, which the horses eat, causing cerebro spinal meningitis, as the disease is known to scientists. In fact, eating of such forage when contaminated, is undoubtedly the most important cause. Over 95 per cent of the cases of this disease in Kansas and Nebraska during the outbreak of 1912 were under such conditions.

"Great care, it is urged, should be taken that horses do not obtain the dangerous forage, unknown to their owners."

His Condition About the Same.

The condition of Archie Barrett of near Skidmore was about the same Monday. The young man was injured last Thursday in riding a bucking horse, being thrown into a snow drift. The physicians believe he will recover. The young man received an injury to his spinal column as a result of the jolting he received in riding the horse and the fall, so the attending physicians think.

After a short residence there they came to Maryville in 1866. Mr. Krause was in the restaurant business and was among Maryville's pioneer business men. His death occurred fifteen years ago the 8th of March, since which time Mrs. Krause had made her home with her daughter.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at St. Mary's church, the Rev. Fr. Willibrord officiating. Interment will be in Miriam cemetery by the side of her husband.

ON CITY POLITICS

REV. FINCH GAVE SHORT TALK ON THAT SUBJECT.

IS YOUR DUTY TO VOTE

Favors the Non-Partisan Movement, as It Keeps Politics Out of City Affairs—Money Raised.

Rev. Robert L. Finch, pastor of the First Christian church, gave a short talk Sunday evening on "City Politics and the City Election" as a prelude to his evening sermon. He spoke of how important it was for every Christian to take an interest in the affairs of the city by having a mayor and city council that was composed of good men who stood for a good, clean city. He urged that every Christian should vote, and that if he didn't he would not be doing his duty. Rev. Finch also said:

"Keep politics out of your city affairs. Select your ticket at a mass non-partisan convention like you have been doing for the past few years. Let every good citizen and Christian attend these conventions and see to it that the right kind of men are selected that will build the city up morally and in every other way."

At the morning service of the First Christian church $1,032 was raised toward the expenses of the church. The evening offering was taken for the fellowship fund of the church.

SURE SPRING SIGN.

Sassafras Seen in Drug Store Window—Time for Grandmother's Famous Tea.

Don't be fooled about this spring business—the infallible sign is here. It isn't red birds or robins, or boys with marbles, or maple sap, or anything like that—it's sassafras in the drug store windows.

You remember about sassafras, don't you? It's that stuff that your grandmother used to make tea out of—tea for thinning the blood, grown thick and sluggish during the long winter, or else making it richer if it was too thin. You were called up and made gulp whole pints of it, after it had brewed long and menacingly on the back of the kitchen stove. Grandma said it was good, and smacked her lips, but that didn't fool anybody, did it?

However, it was better than the sulphur and molasses that were likely to come a little later, so good little boys and girls drank it down, and winked the tears out of their eyes, and felt the blood getting thinner—or thicker, as needed.

It's that sort of sassafras that is appearing in the store windows now; which indicates that the blood is too thick, or too thin. It gets that way only in the spring, of course, so it follows that spring is just about here. Else why would the druggists have the sassafras in the show windows?—St. Joseph Gazette.

PLEADED GUILTY TO CHARGE.

Aaron Key Received a Fine of $25 by Justice J. B. Thompson.

Aaron Key, who was arrested at Hopkins last week for stealing some articles from the Charles Lincoln home, where he had been staying, pleaded guilty to a charge of petit larceny before Justice of the Peace J. B. Thompson, in Hopkins on Monday. He was given a fine of $25.

Sam Selecman, who has been in ill health for the past two months, left Monday morning for Hot Springs, Ark., where he will spend several weeks for the benefit of his health. He will visit his sister, Mrs. L. W. Houston, at that place.

Lona Perrin of the News-Press of St. Joseph visited in Maryville Sunday with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sparks of Orrsburg were shopping in the city Saturday.

DEATH OF MRS. KOGER.

Pickering Woman Died at Hospital Saturday Night of Cancer—Funeral This Afternoon.

Mrs. James H. Koger of near Pickering, died Saturday night at St. Francis hospital of cancer. Mrs. Koger was brought to the hospital and operated on Wednesday and seemed to be getting along nicely until Saturday morning, when she began to fail rapidly. Her illness was of short duration, and her death came as a grievous shock to her family.

The funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Smith, 1302 East Third street, and were conducted by Rev. Louis M. Hale of the First Baptist church. Burial took place in Oak Hill cemetery, five miles east of Maryville.

Mrs. Koger was Mrs. Samantha Cozad of Maryville. She was born in Genosee, Henry county, Ill., September 25, 1859, where her husband, Henry Cozad, was also born, August 15, 1844. Their marriage occurred in Knox county, Ill., May 22, 1877. They went to Kansas soon after their marriage and lived awhile, then came to Missouri, living in St. Joseph awhile, then came to Maryville about twenty-five years ago. Mr. Cozad's death occurred fifteen years ago.

They had four children, Andrew J. Cozad, Samuel H. Cozad, Jennie C., wife of Clyde Avitt, Stella E., wife of James A. Smith, all of this city, and Miss Cora B. Cozad, at home.

Five years ago the coming April Mrs. Cozad married James H. Koger, a highly respected farmer of near Pickering. Besides her husband and children, she leaves the following stepchildren to mourn her loss. Wesley Koger, a traveling salesman in North Dakota; Noah Koger, a farmer at Merna, Neb.; Miss Nettie Koger, at home; Mrs. Shimmings of the Mt. Ayr neighborhood, until last week of Hawardan, Ia.; Elma Koger of near Pickering; Sam Koger of Taft, Cal.

Why He Was Out Late.

A New York friend met Lubin, the Philadelphia picture maker, in the early morning hours on Broadway.

"Pretty late for you, isn't it, Mr. Lubin?" he said.

"Not at all," replied Lubin. "You see, I have only one good eye, so I have to stay up twice as long as most people to see as much as they do."—New York World.

SICK, SOUR STOMACH, INDIGESTION OR GAS

Take "Pape's Diapepsin" and in Five Minutes You'll Wonder What Became of Misery in Stomach.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Advertisement.

POLITICAL NOTES.

(By Democratic Press Bureau.)

Postmaster Burleson is managing the parcel post in the interest of the people and, at the same time, putting the postoffice department on a self-sustaining basis. The effort of the senate to tie Burleson and choke the parcel post is worthy of an Aldrichized senate, but entirely unworthy of a body controlled by Democrats.

In Adair county all parties have recently held mass meetings to consider local party interests. The Progressive party had a much larger attendance at the party council than the standpat Republicans. The Progressives are acting like they were out to promote principles, not to place a few fellows in office.

The Shackelford road bill is in accord with the Democratic platform. The platform says: "We favor national aid to state and local authorities in the construction and maintenance of post roads." The bill carries the aid to the post roads—those used by the rural route carriers and the people of the country districts in getting their products to town and the market. The opposition to the bill wants the aid devoted to ocean-to-ocean highways used largely by the auto tourists and joy riders.

Spring First Harbinger.

Mrs. James Charles of near Graham has a nice brood of young chicks and two more hens now hatching. Uncle Jim Charles usually has potatoes planted ready to come up by the time the new Easter bonnets bloom out in the spring, but since his majesty the ground hog had such an excellent chance to have seen his shadow, he may be a few days late this year. Any way, you may expect to see him in the potato patch any morning now as soon as the snow goes off the ground.

Uncle Jim Charles, with his bucket on his arm, dropping potatoes in a well made furrow as straight as an arrow, has long since in Hughes township been considered the first harbinger of "Springtime Has Come Gentle Annie." The natives of "Brush Africa," anxiously awaiting the first tokens of spring, no longer patiently watch for the appearance of the first robin, or attentively listen to catch the first sweet note of the blue bird, so as to prepare their fields for the spring crops, but keep their eyes peeled on Uncle Jim's potato patch, which sign has never failed them yet.

Creating a New Municipal Office.

In the third article of a series on the "Third House," by Mrs. Mabel Potter Daggett, the well known magazine writer and investigator, is given some very interesting details of how women raised the food standard and made the laws that compel the dealer in food commodities to both prepare and exhibit the product for sale under sanitary conditions:

It took a woman in the first place to show the cities of the United States how to have clean food shops. The appointment of Mrs. Evans, at the demand of the women of Portland, to supervise the markets and stores of that city was the beginning of the work. As the first woman food inspector, who has blazed the trail in which all the others are walking, she drafted the food ordinance that her city adopted in 1907. These are its chief requirements:

"All prepared foods, cheese, cooked meats, honey, pickles, olives, sauer kraut, mince meat, bread, cakes, lard, butter, figs and dates must be kept under cover; meats, fish, or other food must not be exposed in open doors or windows; berries must be protected from the flies.

"All provisions must be raised at least two feet above the floor.

"Shops must be well lighted, ventilated and free from offensive odors.

"Floors, shelves, counters, trays and utensils must be kept clean, and all vessels and machines must be washed immediately after using.

"Refrigerators must be kept clean and free from offensive odors.

"Shops must be closely screened during warm weather.

"There must be water and conveniences for washing the hands.

"Personal cleanliness must be exacted of employes and no soiled apparel allowed to hang in the shop.

"Smoking and expectorating in the shop must be prohibited, and signs to that effect exposed.

"Cellars must be kept clean, dry and ventilated.

"Back premises must be kept clean.

A MESSAGE TO WOMEN

Who Are "Just Ready to Drop."

When you are "just ready to drop," when you feel so weak that you can hardly drag yourself about—and because you have not slept well, you get up as tired-out next morning as when you went to bed, you need help.

Miss Lea Dumas writes from Malone, N. Y., saying: "I was in a badly run-down condition for several weeks but two bottles of Vinol put me on my feet again and made me strong and well. Vinol has done me more good than all the other medicines I ever took."

If the care-worn, run-down women, the pale, sickly children and feeble old folks around here would follow Miss Dumas' example, they, too, would soon be able to say that Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron remedy, had built them up and made them strong.

It is a wonderful strength creator and body builder, and we sell it under a guarantee of satisfaction. You get your money back if Vinol does not help you. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

Lewis-Slason Wedding.

A wedding took place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Lewis of Conception Junction, when their daughter, Verna, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank G. Slason of St. Joseph. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. O. Ransford, pastor of the M. E. church. Mrs. K. Jeter played the wedding march by Mendelssohn. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white shadow lace draped with pale green chiffon and ribbon. She carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. After the ceremony a three-course wedding dinner was served. The wedding guests aside from the members of the family included Mr. and Mrs. H. T. English and daughter, Marietta, of St. Joseph and Mr. and Mrs. Will Vandeventer. The bridal couple left on the afternoon train for their home in St. Joseph. They will reside on North Tenth street. Mr. Slason is a member of the Buick Automobile Co. of St. Joseph.

Elected Savitar Queen.

Miss Helen Smith of Stanberry, a junior in arts and education and a member of the Delta Gamma sorority, was Friday night elected savitar queen for 1914, by the students of the University of Missouri.

She is president of the junior girls, and chairman of the social entertainment committee of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, of which she is a member. She is a member of the women's council, and last year she was elected the queen of the farmers' fair.

The election of the savitar queen means that Miss Smith's picture will be given the place of honor in the women's section of the Missouri University annual, and that she will receive several complimentary copies of the book, beside being in line for further honors at the hands of the girl students.

Miss Smith is well known in Maryville, having often visited here with her cousin, Mrs. F. M. Petty.

The National Laying Contest.

About 1,000 pullets, representing twenty-five varieties of poultry, make up the 1914 laying contest. These birds come from all over the United States and from eight foreign countries. Several pens of Single Comb White Leghorns were entered by the New Zealand government. The birds from that country were shipped in miniature poultry houses. One of these houses weighed 253 pounds, while the birds occupying it weighed but twenty-two pounds. The total express fee on the New Zealand shipment was $255. The English chickens were shipped in large but light crates. The crates contained roost poles and all the comforts and conveniences that could be given for the long trip. Germany's entry arrived in big wicker baskets, which is the popular method for transportation in that country. The foreign entries have been carefully selected and many of them are from stock that has been especially bred for egg production. The best in the United States has been entered and the winner of the third laying contest will be world's champion.

John Deere
THE STEEL PLOW

Good name means as much in the implement business as in private life—
And is acquired in the same way. Goods that have the reputation are the best in their line—a'ways.
They get to the top and stay there—Why? Because of their quality and prestige.
Prestige is the result of known quality. Implement prestige is the good opinion of enough people, based on actual experience, to make that particular implement the best.
The John Deere line in the end give the greatest returns on the investment—
And that is the sole and only reason why farmers want them when others could be had for less money.
Farmers who have used the John Deere line ask for them by name just as their fathers did before them.
The name John Deere is implement insurance—it fixes the quality and has done so for more than seventy years.

Co-Operation In Selling Eggs.

Missouri has just one egg circle. This association is in Dent county.

In Canada the co-operative egg circle is a popular and profitable institution. On Prince Edward island alone there are thirteen associations with a membership of more than 500 farmers. These associations sent about 60,000 dozen eggs to market at Montreal during the fall months, after their organization in 1913.

The Canadian egg circles were formed by the Canadian government, and the organization perfected by an expert who personally visited the communities. Business is transacted by a board of seven directors who employ a manager. Membership fee in the circle is but 30 cents and the annual dues 25 cents. Every member has a rubber stamp bearing the association number and individual number. He obligates himself to gather the eggs once a day in winter and twice a day in summer and to stamp them before turning them over to the collector. The collector, who is also manager, makes daily trips in a covered wagon and attends to the shipment of eggs. He is paid a commission of one cent a dozen in spring and summer and two cents a dozen in fall and winter for doing this work.

The Canadian associations are also handling poultry, though the sale of eggs seems to be their principal object. They buy feed, oyster shell and other poultry supplies co-operatively. The breeding of pure bred fowls is insisted on and the new plan is meeting with favor.

Any Attempt at Dissolution Would Cripple Trade.

Washington, March 2.—The house merchant marine and fisheries committee in the final report of the shipping trust investigation says that foreign and domestic shipping of the United States is so combined by agreements, pools and conference arrangements that an attempt to dissolve the combinations would cripple trade.

The committee after two years of inquiry recommends that both foreign and domestic shipping combinations be placed under control of the interstate commerce commission, and that, if necessary, the commission be enlarged to care for the additional work.

The final recommendations of the committee, embodied in the fourteenth volume of its report, just compiled, sets forth that shipping lines in practically every trade route from or to United States ports are operated by agreement or conference to restrain competition. The report sets forth that the advantages accruing to both shippers and ship line through these agreements are so great that the combinations should be allowed to continue, under the supervision of the interstate commerce commission as to rates, classifications, rebates and discrimination. It would be futile, the committee asserts, to attempt to restore competition by ordering existing agreements terminated.

The report deals with 800 foreign and domestic navigation companies and 200 railroad lines.

FEDERALS ASSIGN PLAYERS

Two Hundred and Ten Men Distributed Among Outlaw Clubs.

Chicago, March 2.—The Federal league assigned 210 players, made preliminary plans for its pennant race and organized a final raid on its rivals, the raid planned to land in its ranks seven of the players now finishing their trip around the world with the Giants and White Sox.

All efforts to get from managers or magnates the names of the players involved in trades failed. No list was given out, but a complete roster was promised the public this week. Twenty-five "stars," who had not been connected with any club, but signed by President Gilmore "for the league," were awarded to teams in need of them.

Lid on St. Louis Redlight Zone.

St. Louis, March 2.—The doors of all the resorts in the segregated district were locked for the first time and the 350 evicted inmates began the search for new homes. Only two of the houses failed to close at the stroke of twelve and subsequently were raided by police, who were on hand to enforce the recent order of abolition. Only four inmates were found in these houses, and, with their keepers, were locked up at the police station.

JOURNEY SOUTH IS NOT TAKEN

Trip of Benton Investigating Body Halted by Rebel Orders.

REPORT PASSPORTS REFUSED

All Bound to Secrecy and If Any Explanation Coming, Must Be From State Department—Possible That They May Go Later.

El Paso, March 2.—Just as the Benton investigating commission were about to take the train for Chihuahua, to examine the slain Briton's body, it was halted by rebel orders. Colonel Fidel Avila, military commander here, declined to permit them to board the regular passenger train which was waiting. An authoritative admission to this effect dispelled reports that the commission was halted on orders from Washington.

Whether the incident means delay or the permanent prohibition of the mission could not be learned. The mystery thrown around the occurrence led to many rumors of an apparently exaggerated nature.

The most persistent inquiry here and in El Paso failed to establish anything but the one fact that the commissioners were refused passports on this side and returned to El Paso.

Only Two Have Such Power.

No official in Juarez has authority to take such action as was taken in this case. Only two persons in northern Mexico have the power Venustiano Carranza and General Francisco Villa.

The order came as a surprise to the commissioners. General Villa at Chihuahua has repeatedly expressed his desire to hasten the inquiry and his offer of a special train to take the mission from this city to Chihuahua, where Benton's body is said to be buried, was formally accepted by Marion Letcher, the American consul there.

George C. Carothers, agent of the state department in many of its dealings with General Villa, also delayed his departure for Chihuahua.

The commissioners are: Charles A. G. Perceval, British consul at Galveston, and James Hambledon, a British subject long resident in Mexico, appointed by Mr. Perceval; R. E. Thomas, a lawyer of this city, who has made a special study of international and Mexican law; Dr. B. M. Worsham of El Paso and Majors W. T. Davidson and C. J. Manly of the army.

Refugees who are deeply interested in the situation were at a loss to account for the new turn in affairs. Several refugees said they thought "General Carranza's attempt to use the Benton negotiations as a lever to obtain recognition of the rebel government and the dispatches from Washington indicating that the state department already is satisfied that it has the correct version of the Benton killing" had something to do with the change in plans.

FIERCE STORM IN EAST

New York City Almost Completely Cut Off From Wire Communication.

New York, March 2.—A northeast storm, swerving to the northwest, which brought first rain, then snow, raged over New York and vicinity, cutting the city almost completely off from telegraph and telephone communication. Reports showed its effects to be widespread.

Three deaths, due to the storm, occurred here, two of them occurring when a roof collapsed under the weight of wet snow, crushing a man and a boy. Another man, blinded by snow, was killed by a train. Several persons were overcome by exposure and a number were injured in accidents.

Believed Woman Will Take Stand Before Mine Committee.

Trinidad, Colo., March 2.—It was believed that plans had been made by the congressional strike committee to take the testimony of "Mother" Mary Jones this afternoon. Members of the committee refused to confirm the report, while other persons interested in the investigation admitted knowledge of a plan regarding the testimony of "Mother" Jones, but refused to divulge its details.

Schooner Hits Rocks.

Wakefield, R. I., March 2.—The four masted schooner Jacob S. Winslow, lumber laden, from Fernandina for Providence, crashed onto the rocks of Block island. Captain Wilson and his crew of eight were brought to shore by life savers.

Indicative of the styles coming in, the handsome model illustrated shows some of the new features in the Eton jacket with the cutaway effect in the back and the attractive skirt. A unique belt in the back of the jacket and the tuck arrangement on each side of the skirt to give it fullness, are other interesting features. The material is the new Crepon in the Holland blue shade.

The Suits we have collected to sell for $25 are without an equal, so we believe. We invite comparision.

Sullivan, Ill., Meets Death Trying to Open Mail Bomb.

Sullivan, Ill., March 2.—Frederick W. Mennerich was killed by an infernal machine, which had been sent him by mail from Decatur, Ill. He first refused to accept the package, but finally decided that his ability as an expert repair man would prevent ignition of the explosive, and attempted to pry open the little tin box.

Mennerich was terribly mutilated but lived two hours after the dynamite had exploded. The only words he spoke after the explosion were: "What happened?" Part of the house was torn away by the blast.

Mennerich's wife, from whom he had been separated for several months, was taken in custody at Springfield, Ill., as a witness, but was released later. The case was reported to the federal officers, who believe that former companions of Mennerich in counterfeiting may have sent him the machine.

SULZER BEFORE INQUISITORS

Former Governor Testifies in Graft Probe Started by Lower House.

New York, March 2.—The Sullivan committee, a new graft investigating body appointed by the lower house of the legislature, held its first public hearing in the city hall here. The committee's counsel summoned as the first witnesses former Governor Sulzer and John A. Hennessy.

Mr. Sulzer said that information of fraud in the state highway department came to him during his campaign for governor and that in accordance with pre-election promises, he appointed a committee to investigate and report.

"They only investigated sixty days," said Sulzer, "but they found enough in that time to convince me that every department of the state was honeycombed with graft. I then appointed Hennessy to investigate the highway department. Hennessy investigated forty roads in twenty-two counties and found that their construction was fraudulent.

"The taxpayers had been defrauded of millions and millions of dollars. Hennessy told me that about 30 per cent of the cost of the roads went for their actual construction and the rest was stolen."

Murdered and Body Placed on Track.

Chicago, March 2.—Cassium M. Fairman, a wealthy business man of Oak Park, a Chicago suburb, was murdered and his body then was placed across the Chicago and Northwestern railroad tracks in West Chicago, according to police who investigated his death. Fairman, relatives asserted, had planned to go to Omaha, where he was to have married Miss Elizabeth Davidson of Springfield, Neb., March 31.

Cold Wave Forecast.

Washington, March 2.—A cold wave for the eastern part of the country extending as far south as the Gulf of Mexico for the first days of the week, with warmer temperatures by the middle of the week and generally fair weather, were predicted in the weather bureau's weekly bulletin.

RURAL CREDITS AND TRUST BILLS

Only Measures That Will Have to Go at Present Session.

BILLS MAY PASS MEANWHILE.

Necessary Appropriation Measures Are Being Rapidly Disposed Of—Bill to Repeal Panama Canal Tolls Exemption May Be Offered.

Washington, March 2.—A new law to enhance rural credits and trust legislation before adjournment of congress are the only measures on the "must" list of the administration for the present session of congress, it was made known. This, of course, excepts the necessary appropriation bills, which are now being rapidly disposed of.

Should congress get into a tangle over the trust bills and prolong the session until campaign leaders at home begin to cry for help, some party leaders believe the rural credits bill might be put over until next session, but there is an earnest desire on the part of the Democrats to establish a system of rural banks before the approaching congressional campaign.

When the currency law was passed many promises were made that it would be followed by legislation to help the credit of the farmers, and, although no declaration was made that such a law would be concluded at the present session, criticism of the Republicans directed at the free listing of farm products in the tariff law, demands, in the opinion of many prominent Democrats, that compensatory action on behalf of the farmers should be taken as soon as possible.

Other Bills May Pass.

It is probable that many other bills will be passed from time to time while trust, rural credit and appropriation bills are being considered, but so far as a legislative program is concerned, the leaders in both houses of congress intend to keep it short.

A bill to repeal the toll exemption provision of the Panama canal act probably will be introduced within ten days by Representative Adamson, chairman of the interstate commerce committee. It will offer no compromise whatever in the situation and is certain to provoke opposition both in the house and senate.

The immigration bill, which has passed the house and is to be reported from the senate committee this week, also will be urged to a conclusion.

Senator Ashurst has given notice that he will press the constitutional amendment for equal suffrage in the senate, but his efforts to fix a time for voting on it will be opposed by Democrats and Republicans alike. The constitutional amendment for prohibition probably will not be taken up at this session.

Will Take More Time.

The trust bills, it is now apparent, will require considerable more time in perfecting than originally was anticipated. March 1 was set a month ago as the time for beginning consideration of the proposed administration bills, but not one of the bills proposed is ready for consideration in either branch. It is probable that either the house or senate committee on interstate commerce will report a bill to create an interstate trade commission this week or next, but many weeks will pass before there will be reported proposed measures to prohibit interlocking directorates, regulate holding companies and to provide for federal regulation of railroad securities

Growing opposition to measures which would supplement the Sherman act, such as the tentative trade regulations and monopoly definitions bills may result in abandoning these measures altogether.

BIGAMIST IS OUT OF JAIL

Mrs. Dora Whitney Completes Three Months' Term in Prison.

St. Louis, March 2.—Mrs. Dora Elizabeth Doxey-Whitney was released from the St. Louis county jail at Clayton, Mo., having completed a three months' term for bigamy, and it was announced she would go at once to the Idaho ranch of her husband, Fred Whitney.

Mrs. Doxey was sentenced to prison for having bigamously married William J. Erder while she was the wife of the late Dr. Lorin Doxey.

Tango Party Ends With Killing.

St. Louis, March 2.—A tango birthday party was brought to a close here with the killing of one dancer and the shooting of another by a boarder at the home, who complained the tangoists prevented him from retiring. Douglass Conroy was the dancer killed and William McClelland the one wounded. Charles A. Gates, the boarder, admitted the shooting to the police, but said he had been drinking and did not know what he was doing.

Women Blamed for Explosion.

London, March 2.—A bomb was exploded in St. John's church half an hour after the service had ended and the congregation departed for their homes. The bomb had been placed beneath a seat in the gallery above the pulpit. The explosion, which is attributed to suffragettes, caused considerable damage to the interior of the building.

THAT MANY ADDITIONS AT BAPTIST REVIVAL MEETING.

CONTINUES THIS WEEK

Great Interest Taken—Two Excellent Sermons Given Sunday Morning by Rev. George Hale.

The revival meeting at the First Baptist church reached the best point yet in the services of Sunday. A deep spirituality prevailed throughout the day, beginning with the Sunday school, when at its close over thirty children professed faith in their Saviour or asked for prayer. All the classes were filled with the regular students, while quite a number of new students were added. The four hundred mark in attendance was not reached, but there were between 350 and 400 present.

A large audience was present to hear the 11 o'clock sermon by Dr. George Hale from the text "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him and he with me." The preacher showed how the Saviour knocks for admittance at the door of the hearts of men in many ways. He is standing there waiting for admittance many times when His presence is not known, but the knowledge of His presence comes in some way, grief or distress being frequently the revealer of the Saviour's desire to come in and give His wonderful strength and peace. But He never comes unbidden. It is man's great privilege to invite this greatest of guests into his life, and this guest never refuses to come when bidden. With His coming there is comfort and joy and peace.

The singing for the morning services aided the message of the preacher, as it always does under the leadership of Rev. Charles E. Henry. Miss Marie Jones sang "He Knows" preceding the sermon, and the congregational singing was excellent.

At the close of the morning service the pastor, Rev. L. M. Hale, took a free will offering of $355 for the expenses of the revival services, detaining the congregation only about ten minutes for that very necessary part of the meeting.

The subject of "Repentance" was dealt with at the evening service. This is considered by those who have heard Dr. Hale throughout the meetings to be the best sermon he has delivered here. He did not leave a single thing unsaid to make the term of salvation plain. As a rule, men like to have their own philosophy of life, and it is only when a sharp grief or some distress comes upon them that they find their own philosophy too short to cover their need.

They like to make their own terms of salvation, too; they do not want repentance to work too deeply; they try to marvel at the new birth Christ preached, but they will never be saved without it.

"No man can be saved who is not willing to lay his heart bare to God. I have been preaching twenty years and I have never yet known a case where a man was not gloriously saved who turned away from every sin. It is the secret sin of men's lives that is keeping them from turning about and facing in the direction God leads. They are not willing to give up all to follow him. They want the benefits that follow Christian living, but they are not willing to seek forgiveness for their sins. When God is permitted to change a man's heart, he changes the soil, so that the fruit that springs up from it is rich and luscious. Every thought and desire is changed and he is a new man. But a man who merely reforms is fighting a losing battle; his old sins are ever before him and there is no peace and joy as is in the life of the man who repents of every sin and has them all cast into God's sea of forgetfulness. "I will remember them against him no more," says God, the loving, tender Father of us all, who wants no man to fight a hard battle; but he would help him and cause him to find the way victorious.

A duet, "Lead Me Gently Home, Father," was sung at this service by Miss Jones and Rev. Henry.

There were twelve additions, ten conversions and two received by letter, at the close of the service, with twenty-five requests for prayer.

There have been eighty-three additions to the church since the revival began, and there is apparently no decrease in the interest.

The baptismal service will occur this Monday evening at 7:30. Preaching will follow.

PUT ON THE WHITE TAGS.

Sheriff Wallace to Arrest Those Who Have Not Taken Out Their Auto Licenses.

To avoid the clutches of the law motorists are instructed to secure the white tags, insignia of 1914 license, and put them on the rear end of automobiles. Sheriff Ed Wallace has had a number of calls from Jefferson City urging the local officers to get busy to see that the applications are filed with the registration fee attached. The secretary of state has sent him a list of motor car owners and of those who have paid up. "I don't want to arrest any of them but if some do not take advantage of this dull time in motoring to get licenses I'm afraid I'll have to," the peace officer said this afternoon.

The new tags are white with a tall condensed number. The time to have them on is out and every day is a continuing breach of the statutory requirement of supplying the good roads fund of the state.

DIE FROM "BLIND STAGGERS."

Kansas and Nebraska Bore the Brunt of the Affliction During the Last Year.

Because of the widespread prevalence of blind staggers, a disease which is causing the death of thousands of horses, the department of agriculture at Washington today issued a statement outlining methods of combatting the malady. Urgent appeals for assistance have been received by the state department from no less than sixteen states showing the universality of the disease. The states include the following: Colorado, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Missouri, New Jersey, Nebraska, North Carolina, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Virginia and West Virginia.

In past years, according to the department, horses have died by the thousands in Texas, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska from a disease affecting the nervous system, popularly known as "blind staggers," or "forage poison."

"Kansas and Nebraska bore the brunt of the loss by reason of the affliction during the last year, but other states also have suffered seriously," says the department.

Additional deaths, it is stated, have undoubtedly been due to 'fake cures.' The disease, the department says, can be controlled effectively only by a change of green food and forage.

"It is quite obvious,' 'it declares, "that there is a direct connection between the green forage, exposed pasturage and newly cut hay or fodder, which the horses eat, causing cerebro spinal meningitis, as the disease is known to scientists. In fact, eating of such forage when contaminated, is undoubtedly the most important cause. Over 95 per cent of the cases of this disease in Kansas and Nebraska during the outbreak of 1912 were under such conditions.

"Great care, it is urged, should be taken that horses do not obtain the dangerous forage, unknown to their owners."

His Condition About the Same.

The condition of Archie Barrett of near Skidmore was about the same Monday. The young man was injured last Thursday in riding a bucking horse, being thrown into a snow drift. The physicians believe he will recover. The young man received an injury to his spinal column as a result of the jolting he received in riding the horse and the fall, so the attending physicians think.

She was married there to George Krause, a native of Switzerland. After a short residence there they came to Maryville in 1866. Mr. Krause was in the restaurant business and was among Maryville's pioneer business men. His death occurred fifteen years ago the 8th of March, since which time Mrs. Krause had made her home with her daughter.

ON CITY POLITICS

REV. FINCH GAVE SHORT TALK ON THAT SUBJECT.

Favors the Non-Partisan Movement, as It Keeps Politics Out of City Affairs—Money Raised.

Rev. Robert L. Finch, pastor of the First Christian church, gave a short talk Sunday evening on "City Politics and the City Election" as a prelude to his evening sermon. He spoke of how important it was for every Christian to take an interest in the affairs of the city by having a mayor and city council that was composed of good men who stood for a good, clean city. He urged that every Christian should vote, and that if he didn't he would not be doing his duty. Rev. Finch also said:

"Keep politics out of your city affairs. Select your ticket at a mass non-partisan convention like you have been doing for the past few years. Let every good citizen and Christian attend these conventions and see to it that the right kind of men are selected that will build the city up morally and in every other way."

At the morning service of the First Christian church $1,032 was raised toward the expenses of the church. The evening offering was taken for the fellowship fund of the church.

Sassafras Seen in Drug Store Window—Time for Grandmother's Famous Tea.

Don't be fooled about this spring business—the infallible sign is here. It isn't red birds or robins, or boys with marbles, or maple sap, or anything like that—it's sassafras in the drug store windows.

You remember about sassafras, don't you? It's that stuff that your grandmother used to make tea out of—tea for thinning the blood, grown thick and sluggish during the long winter, or else making it richer if it was too thin. You were called up and made gulp whole pints of it, after it had brewed long and menacingly on the back of the kitchen stove. Grandma said it was good, and smacked her lips, but that didn't fool anybody, did it?

However, it was better than the sulphur and molasses that were likely to come a little later, so good little boys and girls drank it down, and winked the tears out of their eyes, and felt the blood getting thinner—or thicker, as needed.

It's that sort of sassafras that is appearing in the store windows now; which indicates that the blood is too thick, or too thin. It gets that way only in the spring, of course, so it follows that spring is just about here. Else why would the druggists have the sassafras in the show windows?—St. Joseph Gazette.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Advertisement.

POLITICAL NOTES.

(By Democratic Press Bureau.)

Postmaster Burleson is managing the parcel post in the interest of the people and, at the same time, putting the postoffice department on a self-sustaining basis. The effort of the senate to tie Burleson and choke the parcel post is worthy of an Aldrichized senate, but entirely unworthy of a body controlled by Democrats.

In Adair county all parties have recently held mass meetings to consider local party interests. The Progressive party had a much larger attendance at the party council than the standpat Republicans. The Progressives are acting like they were out to promote principles, not to place a few fellows in office.

The Shackelford road bill is in accord with the Democratic platform. The platform says: "We favor national aid to state and local authorities in the construction and maintenance of post roads." The bill carries the aid to the post roads—those used by the rural route carriers and the people of the country districts in getting their products to town and the market. The opposition to the bill wants the aid devoted to ocean-to-ocean highways used largely by the auto tourists and joy riders.

Spring First Harbinger.

Mrs. James Charles of near Graham has a nice brood of young chicks and two more hens now hatching. Uncle Jim Charles usually has potatoes planted ready to come up by the time the new Easter bonnets bloom out in the spring, but since his majesty the ground hog had such an excellent chance to have seen his shadow, he may be a few days late this year. Any way, you may expect to see him in the potato patch any morning now as soon as the snow goes off the ground.

Uncle Jim Charles, with his bucket on his arm, dropping potatoes in a well made furrow as straight as an arrow, has long since in Hughes township been considered the first harbinger of "Springtime Has Come Gentle Annie." The natives of "Brush Africa," anxiously awaiting the first tokens of spring, no longer patiently watch for the appearance of the first robin, or attentively listen to catch the first sweet note of the blue bird, so as to prepare their fields for the spring crops, but keep their eyes peeled on Uncle Jim's potato patch, which sign has never failed them yet.

Creating a New Municipal Office.

In the third article of a series on the "Third House," by Mrs. Mabel Potter Daggett, the well known magazine writer and investigator, is given some very interesting details of how women raised the food standard and made the laws that compel the dealer in food commodities to both prepare and exhibit the product for sale under sanitary conditions:

It took a woman in the first place to show the cities of the United States how to have clean food shops. The appointment of Mrs. Evans, at the demand of the women of Portland, to supervise the markets and stores of that city was the beginning of the work. As the first woman food inspector, who has blazed the trail in which all the others are walking, she drafted the food ordinance that her city adopted in 1907. These are its chief requirements:

"All prepared foods, cheese, cooked meats, honey, pickles, olives, sauer kraut, mince meat, bread, cakes, lard, butter, figs and dates must be kept under cover; meats, fish, or other food must not be exposed in open doors or windows; berries must be protected from the flies.

"All provisions must be raised at least two feet above the floor.

"Shops must be well lighted, ventilated and free from offensive odors.

"Floors, shelves, counters, trays and utensils must be kept clean, and all vessels and machines must be washed immediately after using.

"Refrigerators must be kept clean and free from offensive odors.

"Shops must be closely screened during warm weather.

"There must be water and conveniences for washing the hands.

"Personal cleanliness must be exacted of employes and no soiled apparel allowed to hang in the shop.

"Smoking and expectorating in the shop must be prohibited, and signs to that effect exposed.

"Cellars must be kept clean, dry and ventilated.

"Back premises must be kept clean. —Pictorial Review.

A MESSAGE TO WOMEN

Who Are "Just Ready to Drop."

When you are "just ready to drop," when you feel so weak that you can hardly drag yourself about—and because you have not slept well, you get up as tired-out next morning as when you went to bed, you need help.

Miss Lea Dumas writes from Malone, N. Y., saying: "I was in a badly run-down condition for several weeks but two bottles of Vinol put me on my feet again and made me strong and well. Vinol has done me more good than all the other medicines I ever took."

If the care-worn, run-down women, the pale, sickly children and feeble old folks around here would follow Miss Dumas' example, they, too, would soon be able to say that Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron remedy, had built them up and made them strong.

It is a wonderful strength creator and body builder, and we sell it under a guarantee of satisfaction. You get your money back if Vinol does not help you. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white shadow lace draped with pale green chiffon and ribbon. She carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. After the ceremony a three-course wedding dinner was served. The wedding guests aside from the members of the family included Mr. and Mrs. H. T. English and daughter, Marietta, of St. Joseph and Mr. and Mrs. Will Vandeventer. Elected Savitar Queen.

Miss Helen Smith of Stanberry, a junior in arts and education and a member of the Delta Gamma sorority, was Friday night elected savitar queen for 1914, by the students of the University of Missouri.

She is president of the junior girls, and chairman of the social entertainment committee of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, of which she is a member. She is a member of the women's council, and last year she was elected the queen of the farmers' fair.

The election of the savitar queen means that Miss Smith's picture will be given the place of honor in the women's section of the Missouri University annual, and that she will receive several complimentary copies of the book, beside being in line for further honors at the hands of the girl students.

Miss Smith is well known in Maryville, having often visited here with her cousin, Mrs. F. M. Petty.

John Deere

THE STEEL PLOW

Good name means as much in the implement business as in private life—

And is acquired in the same way. Goods that have the reputation are the best in their line—a'ways.

They get to the top and stay there—Why? Because of their quality and prestige.

Prestige is the result of known quality. Implement prestige is the good opinion of enough people, based on actual experience, to make that particular implement the best.

The John Deere line in the end give the greatest returns on the investment—

And that is the sole and only reason why farmers want them when others could be had for less money.

Farmers who have used the John Deere line ask for them by name just as their fathers did before them.

The name John Deere is implement insurance—it fixes the quality and has done so for more than seventy years.

The National Laying Contest.

About 1,000 pullets, representing twenty-five varieties of poultry, make up the 1914 laying contest. These birds come from all over the United States and from eight foreign countries. Several pens of Single Comb White Leghorns were entered by the New Zealand government. The birds from that country were shipped in miniature poultry houses. One of these houses weighed 253 pounds, while the birds occupying it weighed but twenty-two pounds. The total express fee on the New Zealand shipment was $255. The English chickens were shipped in large but light crates. The crates contained roost poles and all the comforts and conveniences that could be given for the long trip. Germany's entry arrived in big wicker baskets, which is the popular method for transportation in that country. The foreign entries have been carefully selected and many of them are from stock that has been especially bred for egg production. The best in the United States has been entered and the winner of the third laying contest will be world's champion.

Co-Operation in Selling Eggs.

Missouri has just one egg circle. This association is in Dent county.

In Canada the co-operative egg circle is a popular and profitable institution. On Prince Edward island alone there are thirteen associations with a membership of more than 500 farmers. These associations sent about 60,000 dozen eggs to market at Montreal during the fall months, after their organization in 1913.

The Canadian egg circles were formed by the Canadian government, and the organization perfected by an expert who personally visited the communities. Business is transacted by a board of seven directors who employ a manager. Membership fee in the circle is but 30 cents and the annual dues 25 cents. Every member has a rubber stamp bearing the association number and individual number. He obligates himself to gather the eggs once a day in winter and twice a day in summer and to stamp them before turning them over to the collector. The collector, who is also manager, makes daily trips in a covered wagon and attends to the shipment of eggs. He is paid a commission of one cent a dozen in spring and summer and two cents a dozen in fall and winter for doing this work.

The Canadian associations are also handling poultry, though the sale of eggs seems to be their principal object. They buy feed, oyster shell and other poultry supplies co-operatively. The breeding of pure bred fowls is insisted on and the new plan is meeting with favor.

Any Attempt at Dissolution Would Cripple Trade.

Washington, March 2.—The house merchant marine and fisheries committee in the final report of the shipping trust investigation says that foreign and domestic shipping of the United States is so combined by agreements, pools and conference arrangements that an attempt to dissolve the combinations would cripple trade.

The committee after two years of inquiry recommends that both foreign and domestic shipping combinations be placed under control of the interstate commerce commission, and that, if necessary, the commission be enlarged to care for the additional work.

The final recommendations of the committee, embodied in the fourteenth volume of its report, just compiled, sets forth that shipping lines in practically every trade route from or to United States ports are operated by agreement or conference to restrain competition. The report sets forth that the advantages accruing to both shippers and ship line through these agreements are so great that the combinations should be allowed to continue, under the supervision of the interstate commerce commission as to rates, classifications, rebates and discrimination. It would be futile, the committee asserts, to attempt to restore competition by ordering existing agreements terminated.

The report deals with 800 foreign and domestic navigation companies and 200 railroad lines.

FEDERALS ASSIGN PLAYERS

Two Hundred and Ten Men Distributed Among Outlaw Clubs.

Chicago, March 2.—The Federal league assigned 210 players, made preliminary plans for its pennant race and organized a final raid on its rivals, the raid planned to land in its ranks seven of the players now finishing their trip around the world with the Giants and White Sox.

All efforts to get from managers or magnates the names of the players involved in trades failed. No list was given out, but a complete roster was promised the public this week. Twenty-five "stars," who had not been connected with any club, but signed by President Gilmore "for the league," were awarded to teams in need of them.

Lid on St. Louis Redlight Zone.

St. Louis, March 2.—The doors of all the resorts in the segregated district were locked for the first time and the 350 evicted inmates began the search for new homes. Only two of the houses failed to close at the stroke of twelve and subsequently were raided by police, who were on hand to enforce the recent order of abolition. Only four inmates were found in these houses, and, with their keepers, were locked up at the police station.

JOURNEY SOUTH IS NOT TAKEN

REPORT PASSPORTS REFUSED

All Bound to Secrecy and If Any Explanation Coming, Must Be From State Department—Possible That They May Go Later.

El Paso, March 2.—Just as the Benton investigating commission were about to take the train for Chihuahua, to examine the slain Briton's body, it was halted by rebel orders. Colonel Fidel Avila, military commander here, declined to permit them to board the regular passenger train which was waiting. An authoritative admission to this effect dispelled reports that the commission was halted on orders from Washington.

Whether the incident means delay or the permanent prohibition of the mission could not be learned. The mystery thrown around the occurrence led to many rumors of an apparently exaggerated nature.

The most persistent inquiry here and in El Paso failed to establish anything but the one fact that the commissioners were refused passports on this side and returned to El Paso.

Only Two Have Such Power.

No official in Juarez has authority to take such action as was taken in this case. Only two persons in northern Mexico have the power Venustiano Carranza and General Francisco Villa.

The order came as a surprise to the commissioners. General Villa at Chihuahua has repeatedly expressed his desire to hasten the inquiry and his offer of a special train to take the mission from this city to Chihuahua, where Benton's body is said to be buried, was formally accepted by Marion Letcher, the American consul there.

George C. Carothers, agent of the state department in many of its dealings with General Villa, also delayed his departure for Chihuahua.

The commissioners are: Charles A. G. Perceval, British consul at Galveston, and James Hambledon, a British subject long resident in Mexico, appointed by Mr. Perceval; R. E. Thomas, a lawyer of this city, who has made a special study of international and Mexican law; Dr. B. M. Worsham of El Paso and Majors W. T. Davidson and C. J. Manly of the army.

Refugees who are deeply interested in the situation were at a loss to account for the new turn in affairs. Several refugees said they thought "General Carranza's attempt to use the Benton negotiations as a lever to obtain recognition of the rebel government and the dispatches from Washington indicating that the state department already is satisfied that it has the correct version of the Benton killing" had something to do with the change in plans.

FIERCE STORM IN EAST

New York City Almost Completely Cut Off From Wire Communication.

New York, March 2.—A northeast storm, swerving to the northwest, which brought first rain, then snow, raged over New York and vicinity, cutting the city almost completely off from telegraph and telephone communication. Reports showed its effects to be widespread.

Three deaths, due to the storm, occurred here, two of them occurring when a roof collapsed under the weight of wet snow, crushing a man and a boy. Another man, blinded by snow, was killed by a train. Several persons were overcome by exposure and a number were injured in accidents.

Believed Woman Will Take Stand Before Mine Committee.

Trinidad, Colo., March 2.—It was believed that plans had been made by the congressional strike committee to take the testimony of "Mother" Mary Jones this afternoon. Members of the committee refused to confirm the report, while other persons interested in the investigation admitted knowledge of a plan regarding the testimony of "Mother" Jones, but refused to divulge its details.

Indicative of the styles coming in, the handsome model illustrated shows some of the new features in the Eton jacket with the cutaway effect in the back and the attractive skirt. A unique belt in the back of the jacket and the tuck arrangement on each side of the skirt to give it fullness, are other interesting features. The material is the new Crepon in the Holland blue shade.

The Suits we have collected to sell for $25 are without an equal, so we believe. We invite comparision.

Sullivan, Ill., Meets Death Trying to Open Mail Bomb.

Sullivan, Ill., March 2.—Frederick W. Mennerich was killed by an infernal machine, which had been sent him by mail from Decatur, Ill. He first refused to accept the package, but finally decided that his ability as an expert repair man would prevent ignition of the explosive, and attempted to pry open the little tin box.

Mennerich was terribly mutilated but lived two hours after the dynamite had exploded. The only words he spoke after the explosion were: "What happened?" Part of the house was torn away by the blast.

Mennerich's wife, from whom he had been separated for several months, was taken in custody at Springfield, Ill., as a witness, but was released later. The case was reported to the federal officers, who believe that former companions of Mennerich in counterfeiting may have sent him the machine.

SULZER BEFORE INQUISITORS

Former Governor Testifies in Graft Probe Started by Lower House.

New York, March 2.—The Sullivan committee, a new graft investigating body appointed by the lower house of the legislature, held its first public hearing in the city hall here. The committee's counsel summoned as the first witnesses former Governor Sulzer and John A. Hennessy.

Mr. Sulzer said that information of fraud in the state highway department came to him during his campaign for governor and that in accordance with pre-election promises, he appointed a committee to investigate and report.

"They only investigated sixty days," said Sulzer, "but they found enough in that time to convince me that every department of the state was honeycombed with graft. I then appointed Hennessy to investigate the highway department. Hennessy investigated forty roads in twenty-two counties and found that their construction was fraudulent.

"The taxpayers had been defrauded of millions and millions of dollars. Hennessy told me that about 30 per cent of the cost of the roads went for their actual construction and the rest was stolen."

Murdered and Body Placed on Track.

Chicago, March 2.—Cassium M. Fairman, a wealthy business man of Oak Park, a Chicago suburb, was murdered and his body then was placed across the Chicago and Northwestern railroad tracks in West Chicago, according to police who investigated his death. Fairman, relatives asserted, had planned to go to Omaha, where he was to have married Miss Elizabeth Davidson of Springfield, Neb., March 31.

Cold Wave Forecast.

Washington, March 2.—A cold wave for the eastern part of the country extending as far south as the Gulf of Mexico for the first days of the week, with warmer temperatures by the middle of the week and generally fair weather, were predicted in the weather bureau's weekly bulletin.

St. Louis Grain Firm Fails.

St. Louis, March 2.—The suspension of Connor Bros. & Co., commission merchants, was announced on the floor of the St. Louis Merchants' exchange. The firm had been in the grain business here forty years and has had a large export business in the West Indies.

RURAL CREDITS AND TRUST BILLS

Only Measures That Will Have to Go at Present Session.

BILLS MAY PASS MEANWHILE.

Washington, March 2.—A new law to enhance rural credits and trust legislation before adjournment of congress are the only measures on the "must" list of the administration for the present session of congress, it was made known. This, of course, excepts the necessary appropriation bills, which are now being rapidly disposed of.

Should congress get into a tangle over the trust bills and prolong the session until campaign leaders at home begin to cry for help, some party leaders believe the rural credits bill might be put over until next session, but there is an earnest desire on the part of the Democrats to establish a system of rural banks before the approaching congressional campaign.

When the currency law was passed many promises were made that it would be followed by legislation to help the credit of the farmers, and, although no declaration was made that such a law would be concluded at the present session, criticism of the Republicans directed at the free listing of farm products in the tariff law, demands, in the opinion of many prominent Democrats, that compensatory action on behalf of the farmers should be taken as soon as possible.

Other Bills May Pass.

It is probable that many other bills will be passed from time to time while trust, rural credit and appropriation bills are being considered, but so far as a legislative program is concerned, the leaders in both houses of congress intend to keep it short.

A bill to repeal the toll exemption provision of the Panama canal act probably will be introduced within ten days by Representative Adamson, chairman of the interstate commerce committee. It will offer no compromise whatever in the situation and is certain to provoke opposition both in the house and senate.

The immigration bill, which has passed the house and is to be reported from the senate committee this week, also will be urged to a conclusion.

Senator Ashurst has given notice that he will press the constitutional amendment for equal suffrage in the senate, but his efforts to fix a time for voting on it will be opposed by Democrats and Republicans alike. The constitutional amendment for prohibition probably will not be taken up at this session.

Will Take More Time.

The trust bills, it is now apparent, will require considerable more time in perfecting than originally was anticipated. March 1 was set a month ago as the time for beginning consideration of the proposed administration bills, but not one of the bills proposed is ready for consideration in either branch. It is probable that either the house or senate committee on interstate commerce will report a bill to create an interstate trade commission this week or next, but many weeks will pass before there will be reported proposed measures to prohibit interlocking directorates, regulate holding companies and to provide for federal regulation of railroad securities.

Growing opposition to measures which would supplement the Sherman act, such as the tentative trade regulations and monopoly definitions bills may result in abandoning these measures altogether.

BIGAMIST IS OUT OF JAIL

Mrs. Dora Whitney Completes Three Months' Term in Prison.

St. Louis, March 2.—Mrs. Dora Elizabeth Doxey-Whitney was released from the St. Louis county jail at Clayton, Mo., having completed a three months' term for bigamy, and it was announced she would go at once to the Idaho ranch of her husband, Fred Whitney.

Mrs. Doxey was sentenced to prison for having bigamously married William J. Erder while she was the wife of the late Dr. Lorin Doxey.

Tango Party Ends With Killing.

St. Louis, March 2.—A tango birthday party was brought to a close here with the killing of one dancer and the shooting of another by a boarder at the home, who complained the tangoists prevented him from retiring. Douglass Conroy was the dancer killed and William McClelland the one wounded. Charles A. Gates, the boarder, admitted the shooting to the police, but said he had been drinking and did not know what he was doing.

Women Blamed for Explosion.

London, March 2.—A bomb was exploded in St. John's church half an hour after the service had ended and the congregation departed for their homes. The bomb had been placed beneath a seat in the gallery above the pulpit. The explosion, which is attributed to suffragettes, caused considerable damage to the interior of the building.
